

For HSCA

Folder 13

Chapter XXI of draft manuscript of
"It Came to Little," by "Ian Maxwell"
(believed to be penname of Mr. Win Scott).
This work purports to be an account of the writer's career in intelligence.

Box 4

APPROVED FOR RELEASE 1994
CIA HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM

File folder with loose material consisting of: a) manuscripts of book, "It Came to Little," by "Ian Maxwell". (Believed to be pen name of Mr. Win Scott.) This work purports to be an account of the writers career in intelligence. b) draft manuscript of portions of a novel entitled "A Time to Kill," by "Ian Maxwell." and c) Miscellaneous draft pages from above works.

NOTE: All portions of these works relating to Oswald have been separated for review by HSCA. Also one page with hand written reference to James Earl Ray.

Box 4

Miscellaneous Folder containing loose manuscripts of book "It Came to Little"
by Ian Maxwell
File # 3

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

APPROVED FOR RELEASE 1994
CIA HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM

for HSCA

Folter #3

One page of draft manuscript - incomplete - with handwritten notation on James Earl Ray.

Box 4

Folder #3 for HSCA

News Clipping and 2 pages rough draft manuscript on Oswald from book -
"The Foul Foe," or earlier draft, "It Came to Little," by "Ian Maxwell," believed to be the pen name of Mr. Win Scott.

Box 4

Folder #3

For HSCA

Draft manuscript of Chapter XXI of book,
"It Came to Little," by "Ian Maxwell".
(Believed to be pen name of Mr. Win Scott.)
This work purports to be an account of the writer's career in intelligence. Material from "It Came to Little" was incorporated as Chapter XXIV of "The Foul Foe," by same author.

Box 4

FOR HSCA

Folder #3

Two pages plus two copies which relates to Oswald and which appears to be draft for the book "The Foul Foe," by "Ian Maxwell". (Believed to be the pen name of Mr. Win Scott.) This work purports to be an account of the writer's career in intelligence.

Box 4